

Ideas for extra days in Greece

A few favourite suggestions for guests who would like to stay a little longer before or after our wedding — Athens, Delphi, the Peloponnese and the islands.

Athens (2–3 days)

Ideal first stop after you arrive.

See:

- The Acropolis & Acropolis Museum (book tickets online)
- Historic centre: Plaka, Monastiraki, the Ancient Agora
- Museums: National Archaeological Museum, Museum of Cycladic Art
- Lycabettus or Filopappou Hill for sunset

Getting around: Metro to/from the airport (line 3), taxi/Uber, walking in the centre.

If you would rather not visit an island, here are some lovely day trips from Athens by car*:

Nafplio (1–2 days)

The first capital of modern Greece, close to Athens. It is a picturesque seaside town that combines sights, beaches and good food.

See: the Old Town, the Palamidi fortress, Bourtzi, the Arvanitia promenade, and the nearby areas of Asini & Tolo.

Food and coffee by the sea and in the narrow streets.

Delphi (day trip or 1 night)

One of the most important archaeological sites in the world (UNESCO), on the slopes of Mount Parnassus — about 2.5 hours from Athens by car.

History: In ancient times Delphi was considered the «navel of the world». Here stood the oracle of Apollo, where kings and city-states sought advice before wars, journeys and major decisions.

See:

- The archaeological site: Temple of Apollo, ancient theatre, stadium
- The Delphi Archaeological Museum (statues, votive offerings, sacred objects)
- The Tholos of Athena Pronaia — a few minutes from the main site
- The traditional village of Delphi, overlooking the Gulf of Itea

Easy to combine with Athens or with a road trip towards Agrinio and central Greece.

*By car from Athens

- Rent a car at the airport or in the centre — ID + international driving licence.
- To Delphi: Athens–Thessaloniki national road, Delphi exit (~180 km, ~2.5 hours).
- To the Peloponnese: national road towards Corinth → Nafplio (~2 hours).
- To Lefkada: cross at Aktio (connected to the rest of the mainland).
- To the Ionian (Corfu, Kefalonia): ferries from Patras/Kyllini, or a flight.
- Saronic islands (Hydra, Aegina): you don't need a car on the island — ferry from Piraeus.

If you would like to visit an island, you will need to go to the port of Piraeus and take the ferry.

The Aegean islands are countless and each one special (e.g. Naxos, Santorini, Mykonos). There are, however, equally beautiful and more convenient options with a much shorter travel time.

Hydra

No cars, a picturesque town, the sea and walking trails — ferry from Piraeus (~1.5–2 hours).

Aegina

The Temple of Aphaia, a charming main town, sandy beaches and the famous Aegina pistachios — ferry from Piraeus (~40–75 minutes).

For the Ionian Sea islands

Like the Aegean islands, the Ionian islands are numerous and beautiful.

The two main ports for the Ionian islands are:

- 1) Kyllini
- 2) Igoumenitsa

These ports are farther from Athens, so the total travel time increases significantly. For this reason, a convenient and equally unique option is:

Lefkada

Lefkada is a stunning Ionian island, reached by road (via a bridge that connects it to the mainland).

It is about 5 hours from Athens and just 1 hour and 30 minutes from our town, Agrinio.

See: Porto Katsiki, Egremni, Nydri, kayaking/boat trips, mountain villages.

Agrinio

Our town, Agrinio, is the largest town in Aetolia-Acarnania and a lively destination that combines city life with easy access to nature. Wherever you stay in Agrinio, distances are quite short.

The central square of Agrinio, Democracy Square (Plateia Dimokratias), is the heart of the town. Around the square you will find plenty of cafés, bakeries and places to eat.

Note

Times are approximate. Check ferries, weather and bookings in advance. Safe travels — we cannot wait to have you at our wedding!
